

Conditions for Release, Rules and Restrictions Applying to the International Handbook of Evaluated Reactor Physics Benchmark Experiments (IRPhE) Project

The data and other experimental information are released under the following conditions:

- Transfer of data to a user in a given establishment confers only the right to use the data within that organisation: in particular, copies of data should not be distributed to persons outside their own establishment; users in other centres should contact IRPhE management directly in order to obtain copies.
- The OECD/NEA must be consulted if an organisation receiving data intends to use them to provide commercial service to users in countries outside of the NEA.
- Data are provided by the IRPhE on the understanding that whenever the use of the data results in a publication (in a journal, conference proceedings, laboratory report, book etc.), the IRPhE Handbook and the authors and laboratory of origin of the data shall be acknowledged in the publication.
- The IRPhE Handbook shall be cited indicating the version used, for example if the 2019 edition was used, the citation would be:
International Handbook of Evaluated Reactor Physics Benchmark Experiments / Nuclear Energy Agency. - Paris : OECD Nuclear Energy Agency, 2019.
- Individual IRPhE Handbook Evaluations shall be cited as (example for 2019 edition):
Štancar, Ž., et al. Reaction Rate Distribution Experiments at the Slovenian JSI TRIGA Mark II Research Reactor, TRIGA -FUND-RESR-002. In: International Handbook of Evaluated Reactor Physics Benchmark Experiments /Nuclear Energy Agency. - Paris : OECD Nuclear Energy Agency, 2019. - 251 pp. -.
- Recipients agree to provide feedback on deficiencies or errors they may find in the data.

Disclaimer

Neither the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development nor any person acting on behalf of the organisation assume any liability with respect to the use of, or for damage resulting from the use of the data and information released.

I agree to these conditions.
